DIRECTION

(a) Unless proper precautions are taken persons sent down to scrape the bilges of vessels may lose their lives through asphyxia from the inhalation of mephitic gas. The Masters of the vessels are, therefore, directed to guard against accidents by pumping water in and out of the bilges, opening the man-hole doors (under proper precautions) so as to ventilate the bilges, and by such other means as may be necessary in each particular case, and they are to prevent person from entering the bilges until these precautions have been taken. The particular attention of Masters of vessels is drawn to the above direction, as well as to the advisability of telling off some competent person to see that no one enters the bilges until the bilge water has been pumped out and that tindals in charge of boys who are to work in the bilge properly carry out all orders given them in this respect. The pumping out of bilge-water will not be permitted in the Port.

EXTRACT FROM ADMIRALTY REGULATIONS

Men clearing and coating double bottoms.—(1229).—The following precautions are to be observed while men are engaged in cleaning and coating the double bottoms of an iron ship:—

- (a) The air fan with hose is to be freely used for pumping in fresh air before the men are sent down and while they are at work.
- (b) A leading stoker is to be responsible under the Engineer in charge of the party that no man enters a compartment unless a light has been held in and left at the bottom of the compartment for at least five minutes, to ascertain the purity of the air.
- (c) Still greater caution is required when the compartment has only one exit.
- (d) Communication is always to be kept up between the men in the inner compartment and those who have access to the outer air end.
- (e) The men are to be warned that they should leave a compartment immediately the light begins to burn dimly; a candle is to be supplied to each party as a surer test than a lamp, since it might be thought that a lamp burnt dimly for want of trimming.

The same precautions are to be taken when examining Boilers and Bunkers.

BEFORE MR. M. C. SHAH, INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, BOMBAY

REFERENCES (IT-CG) Nos. 2 OF 1949 AND 2 OF 1950

ADJUDICATION

BETWEEN

The Asian Assurance Co., Ltd., Bombay.

AND

Its employees in its Head Office.

In the matter of an industrial dispute re: scales of pay, acting allowance, promotions, dearness allowance, Bombay allowance, gratuity, bonus, uniforms, hours of work, overtime allowance, etc.

APPEARANCES

Mr. C. P. Tolani, Manager, with Mr. R. M. Coutts, Agency Superintendent, for the Company.

Mr. N. V. Phadke, instructed by Mr. R. A. Menezes, General Secretary, Asian Assurance Employees Union, Bombay, for the employees.

AWARD

* These references have been made to me by the Central Government under section 10(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 for adjudication of the industrial dispute between the Asian Assurance Company, Limited, Bombay and its employees in its Head Office relating to the demands stated below:—

DEMAND No. 1

Scales of Pay—

(a) Heads of Sections :	250-20-450.....	10 years
(b) Assistants :	150-15-375	15 "
(c) Steno-typists :	125-15-350.....	15 "
(d) Clerks & Typists :	90-10-190; 190-15-325. 19 "
	Typists should be paid machine allowance Rs. 10/-.
(e) Recorders :	65-5-115; 115-7-150....	15 years

Grade (e) applicable to sepoy ONLY on promotion.

(f) Sepoy & Lift men :	50-4-90; 90-5-115....	15 years.
------------------------	-----------------------	-----------

Havildars should be paid Rs. 10/- and liftmen Rs. 15/- more than sepoy.

When fixing the new grade in different categories no one should be paid lower than the starting salary of the category concerned. When the salaries of the old employees are to be fitted into the new salary scales the employees should be given a rise according to the exact number of years of service i.e., the existing salaries should be adjusted on a point to point basis. The seniority which some employees have already been given should not be reduced.

Acting Allowances and Promotions.—1. A junior clerk who acts in the place of an Assistant should be paid an acting allowance of Rs. 25/- per month.

2. An Assistant who acts in the place of a Sectional Head should be paid an acting allowance of Rs. 20/- per month.

Vacancies for higher posts should be filled from amongst the members of the staff.

DEMAND No. 2

Dearness Allowance.—Dearness allowance should be paid with retrospective effect from 1st August 1948 as follows:—

A flat monthly rate of Rs. 45/- for clerks and Rs. 40/- for sepoy.

Though the employees had demanded Rs. 85/- per month as Dearness allowance from 1st January 1947 the Company has paid as Dearness allowance Rs 80/- per month only from 1st January 1947. All employees should, therefore, be paid the difference of Rs. 5/- per month from 1st January 1947 to 31st July 1948.

DEMAND No. 3

A Bombay allowance of Rs. 10/- per month should be paid to every employee.

DEMAND No. 4

Gratuity.—The Union submits that one month's salary for every year of service with the maximum of 15 months' salary should be paid after ten years of service. The principle of paying gratuity in addition to the Provident Fund in Industrial and commercial concerns has been well recognised by the Bombay Industrial Court and by Adjudicators. That the Company should refuse to admit this already established principle only speaks for the extremely unenlightened and narrow outlook of its present management. It is also submitted that gratuity should be paid when employees retire, die or leave the Company or retrenched or disabled.

DEMAND No. 5

Bonus.—A bonus equal to one months salary should be paid to every employee for the years 1946, 1947 and 1948.

The Company should also pay bonus equal to two months salary to every employee every year in future.

DEMAND No. 6

The Company should supply three sets of uniforms, 2 pairs of foot-wear and one umbrella in a year to all the sepoys.

Those sepoys detailed on outdoor work should be insured against risk of accident. They should be provided with cycles.

At the present the Company has no fixed period to equip the peons with the necessary uniforms. It is submitted that the Company should be ordered to grant this demand.

DEMAND No. 7

Hours of work.—The hours of work should be from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. with a recess of one hour on week days and from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M. on Saturdays.

DEMAND No. 8

Over-time Allowance.—No employee should be required to work before or after office hours, on Sundays or Holidays. But should such a contingency arise due to extraordinary circumstances an employee should be paid @1½ the wages.

Employee living beyond Thana and Borivli should be given a concession of ten minutes for attending the office.

DEMAND No. 9

Insurance.—Employees should be given a reduction in premium equal to 88:1/3 per cent. subject to a maximum sum assured of Rs. 10,000/-.

DEMAND No. 10.

All employees should be entitled to leave allowed to the following rules :

(a) Privilege Leave : One month

(b) Casual Leave : Ten days

Casual leave should be allowed to be prefixed or suffixed to holidays.

(c) Sick Leave.—On the production of a Medical Certificate an employee should be entitled to sick leave upto a period of six months on full pay and a further period of 3 months on half pay.

DEMAND No. 11

Defence —The Union demands that (a) every employee should be given an opportunity to defend himself either personally or through a Union representative, when an enquiry is instituted in respect of any offence alleged to have been committed by him. In no case should an employee be dismissed or discharged or otherwise punished without proper enquiry and such an opportunity to show cause.

(b) The Union affirms that an employee who is dishonest, disloyal or who shirks work should certainly be brought to book. But, in all fairness, he should be given an opportunity to defend himself. The Union desires to bring to the notice of the Honourable Tribunal that two employees have been summarily dismissed with 24 hours' notice from the service of the Company without any inquiry and without the opportunity of appeal.

DEMAND No. 12

General Privileges.—(a) No employee should be transferred from one Department to another if such transfer is detrimental to his interest or to the interest of an employee in the Department to which he is being transferred.

(b) Canteen.—The Company should give every facility for the smooth and efficient running of the existing canteen.

(c) Temporary staff should be confirmed after three months in all cases.

DEMAND No. 18

Existing Privileges.—The demands put forward as aforesaid when awarded shall not prejudice the existing conditions of employment of any employee or group of employees.

The employees crave leave to add to, alter, amend or modify the above statement.

2. Originally the dispute between the Asian Assurance Co. Ltd. and its employees in its Head Office was referred to me by the Government of Bombay on 1st February 1949 but the said dispute abated owing to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Industrial Disputes (Banking and Insurance Companies) Ordinance, 1949 (VI of 1949). The Central Government thereafter referred the same demands of the employees to me for adjudication and these were the subject matter of Reference (IT-CG) No. 2 of 1949. Subsequently the employees made certain fresh demands in modification of the original demands in August 1949 and thereupon the Central Government made a fresh reference to me for an adjudication of these demands and they are the subject of Reference (IT-CG) No. 2 of 1950. In view of this fresh reference no award need be made in the earlier reference (IT-CG) No. 2 of 1949 and the said reference will be taken as disposed of. However, it may be specified that this award is made in reference (IT-CG) No. 2 of 1950 and will apply to such of the employee's who are covered by that reference and not to others.

3. The Asian Assurance Co. Ltd., hereinafter called the Company, was established in 1910 and was working purely as a life assurance company till 1948 when it started doing general insurance business in addition to life business. The present management took over the affairs of the Company in October 1939 but after the changeover the new management had to face several litigations some of which were long drawn out and these litigations cost the Company a good deal. The Company has, however, prospered under the new management and whereas the new business in 1939 was Rs. 78 lakhs and the total business in force stood at Rs. 4.6 crores, the new business in 1946 was Rs. 2.50 crores and the total business in force was Rs. 9.8 crores. The Life Assurance Fund which stood at Rs. 76.53 lakhs in 1939 rose to Rs. 1.94 crores at the end of 1946. In 1947 the new life business underwritten was Rs. 2 crores, the business in force stood at Rs. 10.19 crores and the total Life Assurance Fund stood at Rs. 2.13 crores. There was, however, a drop in the new life business in 1948 and the same was reduced to Rs. 1.85 crores though there was an increase in the total Life Assurance Fund which stood at Rs. 2.85 crores and the business in force stood at Rs. 10.85 crores. In 1949 the new business amounted to Rs. 1.80 crores, the premium income was Rs. 55.68 lakhs and the Life Assurance Fund stood at Rs. 2.63 crores. The volume of the business of the Fire, Accident and Workman's Compensation Departments was comparatively not large and in the three years in 1946, 1947 and 1948 it did not show any material change. The working of these other departments of the Fire, Accident and Workman's Compensation Departments was comparatively not large and in the three years in 1946, 1947 and 1948 it did not show any material change. The working of these other departments in 1939 show better results in 1949, the profits being comparatively higher than in the previous years. The figures undoubtedly show that the Company's position has improved from year to year and that it has now attained a certain stability though, on account of circumstances beyond its control it has not been able to progress sufficiently well. However, the Company is working on the right lines and the progress that has been already achieved has been due largely to the cautious and wise stewardship of the present management.

Relying on the increase in the life business and the Life Assurance Fund Mr. Phadke has urged that the Company has prospered a great deal and is now in a sound and flourishing condition and has the necessary capacity to bear the burden of the demands which are the subject of this reference. Mr. Tolani, the Manager of the Company, who appeared for the Company has demurred to this position and has urged that neither the increase in the new business nor the increase in premium income nor the increase in Life Fund is the real criterion of the Company's financial position and its capacity to pay and that the quinquennial valuation of the Company alone can reveal the true position. He pointed out that the net interest yield of the Company has fallen considerably in that whereas it stood at 5.22 per cent. in 1939 it has receded year by year and stood at a low level of 2.71 per cent. in 1948 and 2.66 per cent. in 1949. The renewal expense ratio, on the other hand, has gone up in recent years particularly 1947 and 1948 and whereas it was 12.87 per cent. in 1942 and 12.06 per cent. in 1946 it rose to 16.72 per cent. in 1947 and 21 per cent. in 1948. It has fallen to 17.49 per cent. in 1949, and this fall was due partly to the measures of economy and the refunds of salary which the Company obtained from its officers. The Company's valuation of assets and liabilities was made for the quinquennium ended 31st December 1948 by the Company's actuary which disclosed a loss of about 7 lakhs. This valuation was not accepted by the Company itself and thereafter as a result of discussions with the Controller of Insurance and with his consent a valuation was made of the assets and liabilities of the Company as on 31st December 1949. This fresh valuation was not ready at the time of the hearing of the dispute but since then it has been completed and at the request of Mr. Meneses, the Secretary of the Union, Mr. Tolani has filed the fresh valuation report (Ex. 18). The valuation has disclosed a deficiency of Rs. 2.88 lakhs which is much smaller than the one disclosed in the valuation made by the Company's actuary as on 31st December 1948. The Company's surplus in 1948 was Rs. 46,260. In 1946 the Profit and Loss account disclosed a loss of Rs. 93,883. In 1947 also there was a loss of Rs. 5,539. In 1948 and 1949 there was a small profit of Rs. 1950 and Rs. 2028 respectively. The Company has not declared any dividends to the shareholders since 1944 nor has the Company declared bonus to the policyholders since 1939.

4. It is urged that the Company has not yet recovered from the effects of the partition of the Country and the consequent loss of business from the West Punjab, Sind and East Bengal areas and that the Company's position is not as prosperous as has been depicted by the Union. It is argued that the Company has to tread very cautiously in order to build up a sound and flourishing position and that it will be absolutely essential for the Company to economise as far as can be in the general expenditure and to otherwise conserve its resources. How it is true that the Company had its share of loss of business and the other disabilities as a sequel to the partition of the Country, in the same manner as the Insurance Companies similarly situated, and that this factor has disturbed its economy. All the same the Company has been progressing steadily though not to the extent that might be desired or expected consistently with its age and status. It is also true that there has been an increase in the expense ratio and a fall in the interest yield but that has been a common disadvantage to several Life Assurance Companies. On the whole, however, the Company's overall financial position is sound and it has attained a certain amount of stability, due solely to the cautious stewardship of the new management. As regards the Company's capacity to bear the burden, Mr. Tolani referred to the stringent provisions of the amended Insurance Act and pointed out that nearly 85 per cent. of the Company's funds will now be required to be invested in approved investments as against 55 per cent. formerly which will affect the interest yield still further and that in the present conditions it was not at all possible to bear any further burden. The improvement registered at the end of 1949 was in a large measure due to the rigid economy practised by the management, as far instance, the Directors reduced their fees for their meetings, the Managing Directors and others refunded their salaries either wholly or in part, cuts were imposed in the travelling allowance of officers, the full-time actuary's post was abolished, branch managers were retrenched, and unproductive units were closed down. Similar measures of economy have been taken in other fields and Mr. Tolani expects that this allround economy will improve the Company's position still further. The Company no doubt does require a careful husbanding of its resources and even to economise wherever economy is possible; all the same, it is equally necessary to see that the employees receive adequate wages, and their general service conditions are ameliorated as far as practicable. The latter is particularly true having regard to the greatly increased cost of living in Bombay. I propose to consider the demands with due regard to these considerations.

Demand No. 1—Scales of pay.

5. The Union has asked for salary scales for the different categories of the employees. The first of these are clerks, for whom the scale asked for is Rs. 90-10-190-15-325. Separate grades are demanded for the Assistants who can be compared to Senior grade clerks and for Heads of Sections who might be compared to what are designated as Head Clerks. There were no regular salary scales formerly but from January 1947 the Company has introduced salary scales for most of the employees. For the clerks there are two grades viz., Grade A and Grade B with the following salary scales:

Grade A: 75—7—145—E.B.—8—209.

Grade B: 65—5—100—6—160—E.B.—7—202.

Normally Grade A is intended for Graduates and persons with special qualifications and stenographers and the Grade B for typists and Adrema operators. On the point of the minimum starting salary of the Clerical employees who come from middle class families, Mr. Bhadke dealt with the cost of living of a working class family in Bombay and referred to certain statistics and reports and urged that having regard to the acknowledged difference between the standard of living of the working class family and the middle class family, the starting salary of Rs. 90/- asked for is reasonable. However, the Company's capacity to pay is at all times a relevant factor and since the Company here has not the absolute capacity to pay, I do not think it will serve any useful purpose to go into the various calculations of the requirements of a working class family and a middle class family in Bombay based on the cost of the living index figure of the former. I do not therefore propose to enter into that inquiry. In the Burmah-Shell Company's award [Bombay Government Gazette, October 6, 1949, p.1413(8)], which is quite a liberal award, the starting salary of the clerical grade is fixed at Rs. 85 but that was because employees in the oil Industry were receiving higher wages all over. It is true that in the award of the All-India Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes) a starting salary of Rs. 98 for A Class Banks has been awarded but that is arrived at by taking 1944 as the basic year. It will not serve as a precedent because I am adopting August 1939 as the base and not 1944. Rs. 75/- has been taken as the starting salary for a Junior Grade clerk in commercial establishments in Bombay, and it has been usually awarded by Industrial Tribunals. In my opinion, that is a fair starting salary for a Junior Grade clerk and I prescribe it in this case. The present maximum of Rs. 202/- for Grade B, which is equivalent to the Junior Grade, is a little low and requires to be increased. In fixing the salary scale for the Junior clerk as also for other categories in this case I have duly taken into account the salary scales which have been prescribed in the case of the Oriental Life Assurance Co., the Bombay Mutual Life Assurance Co., and the Bombay Life Assurance Co., and on a due consideration of these scales and other relevant factors, I award to the Junior Grade clerk a scale of Rs. 75-5-105-6-185-8-150-E.B-8-175-10-215, the maximum to be reached at the end of 20 years. As for the typist, he is generally treated as on a par with the Junior Grade clerk and he will therefore be given the Junior Clerical grade prescribed above.

5A. The Union has asked for a grade for the Assistants who are equivalent to Senior Grade clerks and I will therefore designate them as Senior Grade clerks. The present Grade A, which is the higher of the two clerical grades, has a starting salary of Rs. 75 and a maximum of Rs. 209 and obviously it is too inadequate. In fact there is not much difference between the present Grades B and A excepting that the increments in Grade A are comparatively better than those in Grade B. However, the difference in the minimum and the maximum of the two grades is too narrow and truly speaking the present salary scale of grade A cannot be considered as a proper scale at all. The need for a Senior Clerical grade cannot be denied, and the Company itself has recognised it though in a limited way. For the Senior Grade I prescribe the following scale viz., Rs. 115—8—155—10—225-E.B—12½—275, the maximum to be reached at the end of 16 years. The present A Grade clerks mentioned in the Company's statement Ex. 11 will be given the Senior Grade, and also such others who deserve to be placed in that grade having regard to their length of service, efficiency and other relevant factors. The strength of the Senior Grade and the question as to which particular employee in the Junior Grade should be promoted to the Senior Grade will, however, be a matter for the Company to decide.

6. The Union has next asked for a separate grade for the Sectional Heads viz., Rs. 250—20—450. At present there are 11 Heads of Sections in the Company's employ. The statement Ex. 12 shows the length of their service, their starting salary, the increments given in the years 1945 to 1949, and their present salaries and the Company has strenuously contended that no salary scale may be prescribed for them and that the matter of their salary and the increments to be given to them should be left to the Company's discretion, the main reason for this contention being want of capacity to pay. Now the Heads of Sections correspond to what are designated as Head Clerks in the Oriental Life Assurance Company and it is true that a separate salary scale has been awarded in the case of the Oriental Life Assurance Co.; but in view of the general financial position of the Asian Assurance Company I do not think it will be proper to commit the Company to a regular salary scale in respect of these employees and I would therefore leave the question of their increments to the management. Mr. Tolani has agreed that the management will bear in mind and will give due consideration to the increments that might be awarded to the Senior Grade clerks under this award and will give such increments consistently with the seniority factor. In my opinion, this assurance ought to be taken as sufficient in the present circumstances. I do not therefore propose to award any salary scale to the Heads of Sections and I leave the question of their increments to the management, who, it is expected, will carry out the assurance given by the Manager Mr. Tolani.

7. The next category of employees are the steno-typists, who are at present given Grade A. However, the salary scale of Grade A is too inadequate for them, and on a consideration of the nature of their work, and the Company's financial capacity, I award to them a salary scale of Rs. 105—5—125—8—165—10—225—E.B—124—275, the maximum being reached at the end of 19 years.

8. The Recorders are given a salary scale of Rs. 40—3—70—E.B—4—90. Under the scheme introduced by the Company in January 1947 recruitment to vacancies in this grade are ordinarily made from among peons with at least 5 years service who have passed Middle School IV Standard (English) and are in other respects suitable. The Union has asked for them a salary scale of Rs. 65—5—115—7—150 but obviously that is an unreasonable demand. The recorders have been given a scale of Rs. 50—3—74—E.B—8—80—5—120 in the Oriental Life Assurance Company's case, but I think it will be appropriate to fix the maximum at a little lower level in this case and accordingly I prescribe for the recorders a salary scale of Rs. 50—3—74E.B—5—114.

9. Sepoys and Liftmen: The Union has asked for a salary scale of Rs. 50—4—90—5—115 for these two categories of workers. However Mr. Menezes, the Secretary of the Union has now withdrawn the demand in respect of the liftman and no award need therefore be made in that respect (Ex. 15). The present salary scale of the peons is Rs. 28—2—36—3—60 and excepting that the starting salary is a little low, the scale is reasonable and the increments in the scale particularly are liberal. I therefore propose to raise the starting salary to Rs. 30 and to maintain the rest of the scale, subject to suitable adjustments of the increments, and a slight increase in the maximum. Accordingly I award to the peons a salary scale of Rs. 30—2—40—3—61. There is no havildar in the Company's employ and the question of prescribing a salary scale for the havildar does not arise. That finishes the categories of the employees for whom salary scales have been demanded.

10. Retrospective Effect and Adjustment: Mr. Phadke has next urged that the salary scales prescribed above should come into effect from August 1948 when the demands were originally made. As stated above the Company introduced the new scales of pay with effect from January 1947 and these scales were then acceptable to the Union, and the Union had even expressed its satisfaction in respect of them. The Union was however not satisfied with and had expressed its disagreement with the scale of dearness allowance, leave facilities and provident fund regulations. That was in February 1947. Nothing transpired thereafter and it appears that the Union revived the demand for increasing the dearness allowance and made other demands in August 1948 and here again there were no fresh demands for salary scales (Vide annexure D to the Union's written statement). Higher salary scales appear to have been demanded by the Union shortly before the reference to adjudication was made by the Government of Bombay but these were appreciably lower than those now demanded. On the said reference abating, Reference No. 2 of 1949 was made by the Central Government and it was while this reference was before me that the Union again revised their demands as a result of which the present Reference No. 2 of 1950 was made by the Central Government on 22nd February 1950. In the circumstances and having regard to the Company's financial position, I think the appropriate, date from which the salary scales prescribed in this award should come into force, should be 1st January 1950 and I direct accordingly. Regarding adjustment, although the Company had introduced salary scales for the first time in January 1947 the Company did use to give increments to the employees even formerly from time to time. Besides, suitable adjustments were made at the time of introducing the salary scales in January 1947 in that all employees were brought on the new scale of pay by fixing the salary at either the minimum of the new scale or at the stage of the new scale next above the then salary, whichever was greater, and the increments normally due in April 1947 were granted at the same time as the salaries were adjusted. The demand for an adjustment on a point to point basis is thus out of the question and, in my opinion, this is not a fit case for even adopting the usual method of adjustment. The requirements of the case will be met by the following method of adjustment which I propose to adopt. The employees will be stepped up to the nearest increase in the prescribed scale and will be given one increment in the said scale excepting those with less than one year's service as on 1st January 1950, and they will thereafter continue to draw future increments (which will now fall due in January of each succeeding year) in the prescribed salary scales subject to the application or otherwise of the efficiency bar of the said scales. Such of the employees who were drawing as on 1st January 1950 a salary lower than the starting salary of the prescribed scale will be brought to the minimum of the prescribed scale with effect from 1st January 1950 and such of them who in this process receive an increase of a sum equivalent to less than the amount of the first increment in that scale will be given one increment in the scale, which will be in addition to the increase which they will receive for the purpose of bringing them up to the minimum of the scale. Thereafter these employees also will continue to draw their future increments in that scale in the same manner as above. The difference of the pay which becomes due on account of the above said adjustments will be paid to the employees within one month and a half of this award becoming enforceable.

11. Acting Allowances and Promotions: The demand is that a Junior Grade clerk who acts in the place of a Senior Grade clerk should be paid an acting allowance of Rs. 25 per month and a Senior Grade clerk who acts in the place of a Sectional Head should be paid Rs. 20 per month. I have dealt with this point in my recent award in Reference (IT) No. 113 of 1949 and Reference (IT) No. 8 of 1950 in the dispute between the Turner Morrison and Co. Ltd. and Mogul Line Ltd., Bombay vs. the workmen employed under them, and I propose to adopt the scheme there prescribed by me. As I have observed, "there is no reason why in fairness an employee who officiates in a higher grade or post and thereby discharges duties of responsible and greater importance or of a different character from those attached to his own post should not receive an acting allowance. However, the act should be of a reasonable duration and, in my opinion, it should not be for less than 15 days. As for the quantum of the allowance the system of awarding 50 per cent. of the difference between the pay of the employee officiating and the employee for whom he officiates is, all things considered, fair and reasonable." I therefore direct that when an employee acts or officiates for another employee who might be in a higher grade or higher post, he should be awarded officiating allowance equivalent to 50 per cent. of the difference between his pay and the pay of the person for whom he officiates. This demand will take effect from the date this award becomes enforceable.

12. It is next asked that vacancies for higher posts should be filled from amongst the members of the staff. Now promotions to higher posts depend, as they ought to depend, upon the employee's capability, etc., and the right to judge whether the employee is suitable for promotion or not must rest with the Company. All the same, the employees are entitled to expect that their claims for higher appointments will be considered on the merits before the Company decides to appoint an outsider. Ordinarily other things being equal, promotion ought to be given to an existing employee provided of course he is found to be suitable and has the necessary capacity or qualifications to fill that post and the Company should give due regard to these principles in making appointments to higher posts. The Union's demand that the higher post must necessarily be filled from the existing staff cannot be accepted and the Company should be left free to decide whether the post should be filled by promoting an existing employee or by an outsider. I direct that the Company will bear the above principles in mind in filling vacancies for higher posts.

Demand No. 2—Dearness Allowance

13 The Company introduced a scale of Dearness allowance at the rate of Rs. 80 per month to the clerical staff and Rs. 25 per month to the lower grade staff with effect from 1st December 1946. The Union having found this scale to be inadequate at first asked for a scale of Rs. 95 for the clerical staff and Rs. 30 for the lower grade staff but the Company did not accept the demand. Subsequently the Union raised the demand which is now for a dearness allowance at the rate of Rs. 45 for the clerical employees and Rs. 40 for the lower grade staff. The demand for the dearness allowance of Rs. 45 for the clerical staff is reasonable having regard to the greatly increased cost of living and Mr. Tolani has not been able to dispute it excepting on the ground of the Company's incapacity to pay. However the claim being reasonable the Company will have to find the necessary funds in order that the total wages of the clerical staff should be adequate. I therefore direct the Company to pay dearness allowance to the clerical staff which will include Junior Grade and Senior Grade clerks, typists, and stenographers. It is true no salary scale has been prescribed by me for the Heads of Sections but there is no reason why they should not be included for the purposes of this demand and to them also I award dearness allowance on the above scale. To the lower grade staff which will include the peons, lift-men and the recorders I award dearness allowance on the following scale:

SALARY SLAB	DEARNESS ALLOWANCE
Salary upto Rs. 50 (inclusive)	Rs. 35 per month.
Salary from Rs. 51 to 100 (inclusive).	Rs. 40 per month.
Salary from Rs. 101 to 150 (inclusive)	Rs. 45 per month.

The payment of dearness allowance at the above revised scale will take effect from 1st January 1950 and it will be paid on the salaries in the prescribed pay scales, as adjusted according to the directions given above. The arrears due on account of the difference between the existing rate and the prescribed rate of dearness allowance will be paid to the employees within one month and a half from the date of this award becoming enforceable.

14 The Union has next asked for payment of the difference of Rs. 5/- per month between the Company's scale of Rs. 30 and the demanded scale of Rs. 35 for the period from 1st January 1947 to 31st July 1948. This was one of the demands made by the Union by their letter of the 12th August 1948 (Annexure D to the Union's statement of claim) and it formed part of the demands referred to adjudication by the Government of Bombay. The date of the demand was thus 12th August 1948 and even if it had been adjudicated upon then, it might not have been found appropriate to allow it from a prior date. As it is, that reference abated and the demand was included among the demands referred to adjudication by the Central Government in reference (IT-CG) No. 2 of 1949. The demand for this difference cannot be said to be unreasonable and I would have been inclined to award it for the whole of the year 1949, though not for the period prior to it, if the Company had the capacity to pay. However, in view of the financial position of the Company I consider that it will impose a strain on the Company which it will be unable to bear. I therefore decline to award the difference in the dearness allowance and with reluctance I reject this part of the demand.

Demand No. 8—Bombay Allowance

15. Mr. Phadke has asked that this demand should be taken into account at the time of fixing the basic pay and that it need not be considered separately. In fixing the basic pay the cost of living in Bombay has been taken into account and the demand does not survive therefore.

Demand No. 4—Gratuity

16. The demand is for payment of gratuity at the rate of one month's salary for every year of service with a maximum of 15 months' salary. The Company has opposed the demand on the plea of want of capacity and it has urged that the scheme of the provident fund which has been introduced already should be deemed to be sufficient. The desirability of giving the benefit of gratuity as one of the retiring benefits to employees who have put in a certain length of service with the Company has been now well recognised and the Company too has not disputed that particular position. However, having regard to the Company's financial position it seems to me that to award gratuity on a full scale will be imposing an undue strain on the Company's finances. At the same time, the employees' interest too ought to receive due consideration and in that view the provident fund scheme should not be taken to be sufficient to compensate them and the benefit of gratuity on a reduced scale ought to be awarded. I, therefore, direct that gratuity should be paid to all the employees covered by this reference on the scale prescribed below:—

- (1) On the death of an employee while in the service of the Company—
Half of one month's salary for each year of service subject to a maximum of $7\frac{1}{2}$ months' salary to be paid to his heirs or executors or nominees.
- (2) On voluntary retirement or resignation of an employee—After 15 years' continuous service in the Company— $7\frac{1}{2}$ months' salary.
- (3) On termination of his service by the Company—
 - (a) After 10 years' continuous service but less than 15 years' service in the Company— $\frac{3}{8}$ th of one month's salary for each year of service.
 - (b) After 15 years' continuous service in the Company— $7\frac{1}{2}$ months' salary.

Gratuity will not be paid to an employee who is dismissed for dishonesty or misconduct. The benefit of gratuity under this award to the employees eligible as per the above directions will take effect from 1st January 1950.

Demand No. 5—Bonus

17. The demands is for payment of bonus equivalent to one month's salary for the years 1946, 1947 and 1948. The results of the Company's working disclosed a net loss of Rs. 98,888-4-0 in 1946, a net loss of Rs. 5539-13-5 in 1947, and a slender profit (surplus) of Rs. 1950-3-0 in 1948. Since the results of the Company's working in the first two years in question disclose a deficit balance and as the surplus in the last year is very meagre, there is no case for paying bonus to the employees and Mr. Phadke too has conceded this position. However, he urged that even if the Company has not made profits or the profits made are meagre, bonus should be paid to the employees because their wages are below the living wage standard. That consideration alone is not sufficient and it must be taken as well established that unless the Company has made surplus profits the claim for bonus cannot be entertained. There is no scope for paying any bonus in this case and the demand is therefore rejected.

Demands Nos. 6 to 13.

18. The Company and the Union have arrived at a compromise on these demands in terms of Ex. 8 and they have prayed for an award in the term of the settlement Ex. 8 annexed hereto. Accordingly I make an award in terms of Ex. 8.

The Company agrees to continue the present practice referred to above.

Employee living beyond Thana and Borivli should be given a concession of ten minutes for attending the Office.

In no case should an employee be dismissed or discharged or otherwise punished without proper enquiry and such an opportunity to show cause.

(b) The Union affirms that an employee who is dishonest, disloyal or who shirks work should certainly be brought to book. But, in all fairness, he should be given an opportunity to defend himself. The Union desires to bring to the notice of the Honourable Tribunal that two employees have been summarily dismissed with 24 hours' notice from the service of the Company without any inquiry and without the opportunity of appeal.

In view of the assurance given by the Management that adequate facilities of defence will be given to an employee against whom any disciplinary action is proposed to be taken, the Union withdraws this demand.
